FINANCE COMMISSION

New Delhi. May 19, 1964.

PRESS NOTE

The Fourth Finance Commission assumed office on Tuesday, May 18, 1964 and held a two-day session in New Delhi.

In addition to matters (connected with distribution of Income-tax and Union Excise duties between the Union and the States and determining the principles governing the grants-in-aid for the revenues to the States) on which under the provisions of Sub-clause (a) and (b) of Clause (3) of Articles 280 of the Constitution the Commission is required to make recommendations, the Commission has to make recommendations in regard to the following also—

(a) the States which are in need of assistance by way of grant-in-aid of their revenues under article 275, and the sums to be paid to those States other than the sums specified in the provisions to clause (i) of that article, having regard to among other considerations, to—

(i) the revenue resources of those States for five years ending with the financial year 1970-71 on the basis of the levels of taxation likely to be reached in the financial year 1965-66;

(ii) the requirements of those States to meet the committed expenditure on maintenance and upkeep of Plan schemes completed during the Third Plan;

(iii) any further expenditure likely to devolve upon those States for the servicing of their debt;

(iv) creation of a fund of the excesses, if any, over a limit to be specified by the Commission, of the net proceeds of estate duty on property other than agricultural land accruing to a State in any financial year, for the repayment of the State's debt to the Central Government; and

(v) the scope for economy consistent with efficiency which may be effected by the States in their administrative expenditure;

(b) the changes, if any, to be made in the principles governing the distribution among the States under article 269 of the net proceeds in any financial year of estate duty in respect of property other than agricultural land;
